

PERSIA MEETS AMERICA'S DEMANDS

ASSURES THAT PROPER ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

Government Assures American Steps Will Be Taken With Regard to Imbrie Killing to Leave No Ground For Anxiety—Promises Every Effort to Pursue and Punish Slayers.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Persian government has assured the State Department it will take steps with regard to the Imbrie incident that will leave "no ground whatever for any anxiety on the part of the United States government."

Replying to the American communication for full protection for American citizens in Persia and threatening to break off diplomatic relations as a result of the killing of Vice-Consul Robert Imbrie and the subsequent attack upon his widow, the Persian government declared it would "repair the incident and fulfill the points that are suggested" by the United States.

The reply said also that the Imperial government "is making extreme efforts in pursuing and punishing the persons who caused and perpetrated the killing of Mr. Imbrie and it will not hesitate to take any kind of steps in this connection."

Concerning the question of security of American nationals in Persia and particularly American official representatives, the communication says: "The Persian government, considering this as its positive duty and gives assurance that it will by no means hesitate to fulfill this duty."

The Persian note was forwarded to Washington by American Minister Kornfeld, at Teheran, to whom it had been addressed by the Persian foreign minister. It apparently was a full acceptance of the American demand that reparation be made, that those involved be punished, that Persia bear the cost of sending an American warship to bring home the body of the murdered vice consul and that hereafter complete protection be given American citizens.

"As your excellency has observed, the government and people of Persia are extremely chagrined and depressed by the lamentable incident of Friday, July 18, (the day on which Vice-Consul Imbrie was killed) and have expressed their feelings to that effect in numerous instances and in various ways."

"You state that your excellency's government does not in such manner approach the situation in such manner as to offend my government. The Persian government regards this as an evidence of the unequivocal good will and friendship of the American government and requests your excellency to be good enough to communicate its thanks and appreciation to the authorities of your great government."

"As I stated in the course of my letter number 2, the Persian government is making extreme efforts in (Continued on page three)

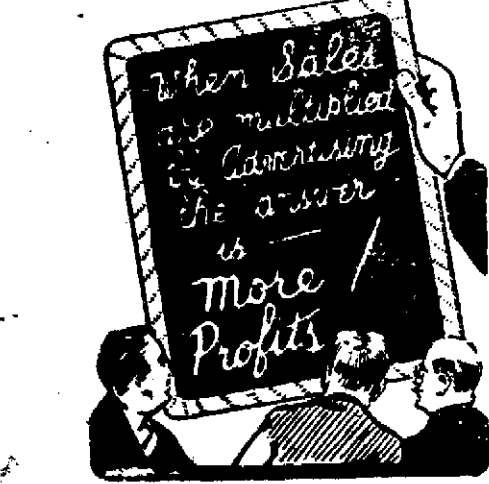

TWO SLAYERS OF PRETTY GIRL OF ILL., SENTENCED

One Negro Must Hang and
Other Is Given 99 Years
For Killing

(By The Associated Press)
MOUND, Ill., July 31.—Nine days after a shooting, pretty 18-year-old girl was slain while attempting to protect her father from an attack by two negroes who had entered the home, with the confessed intent to rob. The slaying occurred at Villa Ridge, Mo., where the confessed slayers, Hoss Conors, 22 and Fred Hale, 19, Cairo negroes, entered pleas of guilty to first degree murder and robbery and were sentenced. The former is to hang and the latter to serve 99 years in the Illinois state penitentiary at Joliet.

The decisions were returned late last night in the Pulaski county circuit court by Judge D. T. Hartwell, following the presentation of evidence required in first degree murder cases. Conors whose date of execution was set for October 18, had previously confessed to firing the shot that killed Miss Wilson while Hale confessed complicity in the robbery.

NEW TURBINE TO BE HERE WITHIN NEXT TEN DAYS

Power Unit For Electric Station Last Word in Steam Generators

Superintendent E. C. Brantley of the Westinghouse Electric company of Pittsburgh to ship the large new steam turbine generator ordered several months ago and which has already received factory tests. The turbine section will come from Philadelphia and the motor generator from Pittsburgh, both heavy pieces being assembled here on the concrete foundation now ready for them.

It will take from 30 to 45 days to erect and test the new engine which, when completed, will represent a municipal investment of $125,000 and virtually assuring local users of power continued service. It was ordered by the council upon realization that the increasing demand for power was taxing the plant and that in event of a breakdown or disarrangement of the powerful turbine put in last year, an interruption of service would be inevitable during the peak load period. The new engine to be installed will take the place of the turbine which was dismantled. The two large sections can be admitted to the plant through the end doors and it will not be necessary to remove part of the wall as was the case when the other machine was installed. The turbine being shipped is described by Mr. Brantley as the last word in turbine generators and will be slightly different in design to the General Electric turbine which it will match in power and production of electrical energy.

The new unit will not require additional boilers but steam boilers have been installed in the boiler room which will give the existing boilers a larger degree of generative power. Probably the next move which the city will take at the power plant will be to install automatic stokers, eliminating the employment of men to keep the fires burning and further increasing the capacity of the boilers.

A new section of switchboard will have to be set up to take care of the terminals and the bus bars in the terminal room will also be overhauled and strengthened.

Mr. Brantley reported today that the electric drive pumps installed at the city water pumping station as part of the $125,000 improvement authorized at that plant are up but cannot be used until completion of the new switchboard parts for which he expected to be in operation this month. The new filtration basins are already in use and are reported working effectively.

Young Coolidge Is Not Going to Camp

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Plans made by President and Mrs. Coolidge to permit their son, John, to attend the citizens military camp this summer at Camp Devens, Mass., have been abandoned and John will remain with his parents at the White House until fall when he enters Annapolis College.

It was the plan and desire of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge at the time John, 17, was sent to the camp last June that both John and his brother, Calvin, Jr., should attend the camp but since the death of the latter the question of John's attendance at the camp has been dropping almost all of his time with his mother and his presence was found to be such a comfort to her that the president finally decided it would be better for him to remain here until school opens.

CROWE AND DARROW IN HOT ROW FOUR WOUNDED IN FIGHT

ANOTHER CLASH WITH KLANSMEN STAGED IN MASS.

Hostile Crowds Clash With Several Thousand K. K. K.
Members After Meeting

(By The Associated Press)
HAVERHILL, Mass., July 31.—Four men were shot here early today when hostile crowds clashed with between 3,000 and 5,000 members of the Ku Klux Klan, who held a meeting lasting into the early morning on a hill in the neighboring town of Groveland. State and local police at length quelled the disorders, taking into custody 23 men, including three of the wounded men, and confiscated six shotguns, several pistols and quantities of ammunition.

The disorders broke out at the conclusion of a Klan initiation ceremony on Perry Hill, Groveland, and continued as nearly 1,000 automobiles, bearing Klansmen from Worcester, Boston, Springfield and other cities, traveled for miles meeting place homeward toward Haverhill. Shots were fired and many missiles were thrown at the passing cars but so far as known only four men were injured. None of the injured men, all of whom suffered gunshot wounds in the legs, was believed to be dangerously hurt.

The wounded men, James Connolly, Cotter, Edmund Lucey, and a fourth named Baker, all of Haverhill, were in one automobile. They alleged they were fired upon by Klansmen in a large truck when they attempted to pass the vehicle after state police had signalled them to move ahead.

Approximately half of the score of men arrested were Haverhill residents and the others were from Massachusetts cities as far west as Worcester. All were charged with disturbing the peace.

About 300 armed guards surrounded the ten acre field in Groveland in which the ceremonies were in progress last night, witnesses said. A crowd of about 400 men collected outside the field, but, although hostile, no disturbance arose until about 1 o'clock this morning when the meeting ended and the Klansmen, openly armed, witnesses said, marched out of the field. They were fired upon by police and they are charged with precaution against attack. Large numbers of the Klan group were apparently former service men, wearing army uniforms.

Stones were hurled at the machines and occasional shots were fired as the Klansmen, riding in their cars, drove toward Haverhill. The firing and stone throwing increased as the Klansmen neared Haverhill and it was believed that all of the arrests were made before the last of the Klansmen had disappeared. Arrests appeared to be approximately evenly divided between persons attending the Klan meeting and opposition.

Bandit Killed In Attempted Mail Robbery

(By The Associated Press)
EAST ORANGE, N. J., July 31.—One bandit was killed, one escaped and a mail clerk was wounded twice when he frustrated an attempted mail robbery at the Lackawanna railroad station at 5 o'clock today.

Eugene Stack, 23, mail clerk employed at the local postoffice, is in a hospital with a bullet wound in the right thumb and the right leg as the result of his repulse of the bandits, who it is believed tried to steal a mail pouch carrying federal reserve packages.

The escaped bandit got away in a taxi which is believed to have been driven by a confederate.

Stack went to the station to meet the 4:58 a. m. train and had taken off six pouches, including the federal reserve bag, when two men got off the train and limped toward him.

They opened fire without warning and the shots were returned by Stack, one bandit fell dead at the foot of a stairway and slumped to the bottom. The other fled to the street where Stack saw him enter the taxi.

Defense Strikes Back

The defense in the trial of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, confessed slayers of Robert Franks, Chicago schoolboy, made its first effort to break down the testimony of State's witnesses when it began cross-examining Detective Sergeant James J. Gortland. Here the attorneys are seen going over Gortland's notes, with Leopold looking over their shoulders. Loeb, sitting back of them, appears more interested in the court proceedings. Sitting with heads together, from left to right, are Chief Defense Counsel Clarence F. Darrow, Leopold, Attorney Walter Bachrach and Attorney Benjamin Bachrach.

NEW PROPOSALS BY FRANCE ARE BEING DEBATED

Takes New Lease on Life
With New Plan

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, July 31.—The members of the experts committee of the inter-allied conference after examining the proposals submitted by the French experts yesterday as a compromise plan to end the conference deadlock over security for the Dawes plan, a German loan, declared their belief today that the French proposals, with minor alterations, would probably be acceptable to the conference.

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, July 31.—The inter-allied reparations conference took a new lease of life today when the experts assembled to consider the new French proposals presented by Premier Herriot yesterday afternoon. The British participants in the conference view the French plan as the greatest effort yet made to bring about a settlement of the conference difficulties so that the Dawes plan can be put into operation, and they are of the opinion that it will be a great step toward a final settlement.

The plan was laid before the experts at noon. After considering it for an hour the committee adjourned until 3 p. m. One of the points of the French proposal provides for a board of arbitration calculated to make a declaration of default on the part of Germany by the reparations commission much more difficult to obtain than now. The plan provides for setting up machinery to take care of defects which might develop in the working of the Dawes plan and still another establishes guarantees against Germany maneuvering out of payments in kind.

According to a French semi-official source the proposal also provides for the evacuation of the Ruhr in successive steps as the securities issued under the plan are floated.

ARCHITECT IS APPOINTED FOR NEW HOSPITAL

Committee Takes Action
Looking to Erection of Modern Home

The building committee, appointed by the board of governors of the recently reorganized Danville General Hospital met last night and definitely appointed Heard and Chesterman of this city as architects for the new hospital to be erected on the site recently acquired on South Main street. J. Bryant Heard, through this understanding, is authorized to proceed with the preparation of plans without delay. The agreement reached last night will be ratified by formal contract within the next few days.

The actual appearance of the hospital as it will be when completed cannot be described now as the building committee has reached no definite decision and will not, it is said, until the members, with the architects have visited the foremost hospitals of the State so as to derive new ideas. It is, however, to cost about $200,000, for the benefit of the people of the community one of the most modern hospitals to be found in the South capable of taking care of one hundred patients. The technical equipment of the hospital will be of the latest and the operating theatres are to be the latest in modern surgery and all it has achieved in the way of inventions of recent years.

Adequate provision is to be made for a residence for the nursing corps and, as the hospital's endowment at a cost of $100,000 is definitely assured as result of action taken by the governors recently the structure will include a department for specialized charity work where free clinics may be conducted.

One of the officials of the Danville General Hospital in giving the general scope of the project this morning declared that it would be possible to begin work within the next sixty days and that this probably would be called for within thirty days.

No disposition has yet been made as to the present hospital and so far as negotiations are under way for its sale. Several suggestions for its use have been made, one of these being its complete renovation and conversion into an apartment house.

Mr. Heard had not been informed as to the committee's action last night when questioned but indicated his readiness to prepare plans without any delay.

Two Negroes Suspected of Robbing and Attempted Murder Surrounding

The negroes, both about 20 years of age, are said by the authorities to have confessed.

RICHMOND, July 31.—Two negroes thought to be the assailants of T. R. Campbell, Caroline county farmer, who was shot, robbed and tied to his bed and his home then set afire last night are believed to be surrounded by a posse near Ribby, according to a message from Bowling Green today. Campbell, left for dead, was reported today to be in a critical condition. Campbell's assailants are thought to have boarded a passing Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad freight train, and when it was stopped at Ribby, taken to the woods. A posse from Bowling Green went to Ribby this morning to assist in the search.

Activities at Low Ebb

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Campaign activities in behalf of the La Follette-Wheeler presidential ticket were temporarily at low ebb today, with the interest of leaders turned chiefly toward the meeting at Atlantic City of the National Executive Committee of the American Federation of Labor. A number of labor union executives attending the meeting are pledged to support a move to throw the federation's support to the La Follette ticket as a whole which would be a sharp departure from its previous political policy.

At an early date, campaign workers said today, a program will be worked out to guide the efforts of the candidates themselves, either, however, is expected to take the road for stump speaking much before September 1.

TOWN TOPICS

Contractor Larrimore has already begun the task of smooth paving the rough stretch of street between the crest on South Main street and the Dry bridge. The street car company is co-operating in the undertaking and is laying new ties underneath the web of street car lines which lead into the barns. The stretch is to be concreted and it will be three weeks before the stretch is open to traffic because of the length of time required by concrete to solidify sufficiently to bear the weight of traffic. In the meantime a detour will have to be taken by all persons coming into and leaving Danville by that route. Those coming in will turn to the left on College avenue just below D. M. I. and reach West Main street by traveling up Red Alley which joins West Main street at Ballou park. Those wishing to proceed to Yanceyville will have to proceed over this route in inverse direction.

Officials of the Danville Kiwanis club received a telegram this morning announcing the untimely death in Richmond yesterday of Josiah Hank, district president of the organization. A handsome floral design will be sent by the Danville club.

A curiosity in the way of a novel and tedious piece of carpenter work was being exhibited this morning by Robert McClain, of John street. In a round quart bottle McClain had, by bit, assembled a cross on which was leaning a miniature ladder. In the cross supports, across the bottom of the bottle, two pegs or nails had been inserted and on another end of the perfect model of a "hatchet" "chopped" into the wood. The first question McClain is asked is "How in the world did you get all that in the bottle," since the neck is very small and the cross ladder and its arms crossed in such a manner they are several times larger than the neck of the bottle. The novel piece of work fills the entire bottle, which is also filled with water colored pink. But the truth of it is McClain put the material in the bottle piece by piece and assembled it there. It was no doubt a tedious job and one which required hours and hours of skillful work and much patience.

Telephone linemen, who have been in Danville for the past several months are nearing the completion of a ten thousand dollar improvement undertaken by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company and which possibly has not been recognized by the people of the community generally. The improvement has been the erection of new poles and the substitution everywhere of twisted pair wires with regulation cables in which to convey current supplying telephones in all parts of the city. The work has covered such a wide area that there is little to show for the expenditure in one place. Service, however, will be improved by the work done. One of the next steps anticipated by the company is the placing of the heavy web of lines carrying telephone communication cables by means of large lead sheathed cable embracing all of the wires, thus eliminating an unsightly appearance on the streets traversed by these trunk lines. This work probably will not be undertaken before next year.

High Over Evidence Continues in Leopold-Loeb Case—State Fighting Hard to Prove Defense Alienists Testifying to Youth's Mentality as a Mitigating Circumstance.

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 31.—One of the cases which Robert E. Crowe, now State's attorney, heard when he was a judge, and Clarence S. Darrow was attorney for the defense was cited today in the Franks' trial when the State tried to maintain that evidence of depravity was not admissible in mitigation of punishment for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, slayers of Robert Franks, Chicago schoolboy. The citation brought a heated exchange between Messrs. Crowe and Darrow today, the former maintaining he had not heard such evidence in mitigation of punishment.

"Yes, you did," asserted Mr. Darrow.

"But the defendant was hanged," said Mr. Crowe.

"Yes, but you sentenced him," reported Mr. Darrow.

The court room rang with laughter, Leopold and Loeb joining. The demonstration faded quickly under the frown of Judge Caverly.

Just before the incident Judge Caverly had turned to the defense and asked to a query against the prosecution's own position. Thomas Marshall, legal scholar of the State's attorney's staff, had read a decision which held that moral depravity was not an evidence of insanity.

"Then if it is not such evidence and does not tend to prove it, can it not be heard in mitigation?" asked the court, adding: "It seems to me it would be competent for a court to hear it and constitute reversible grounds if it were rejected."

"What Will Become of Children?"

NEW YORK STATE TO BE BIGGEST BATTLE GROUND

Political Leaders See Real Fight in That State During Coming Campaign

By ROBERT T. SMALL
(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

NEW YORK, July 31.—New York state is to be perhaps the greatest battle ground of the coming presidential campaign. With John W. Davis of their standard bearer the Democrats realize their best chance of winning the election lies in winning some of the northern states east of the Mississippi river to add to the electoral votes of the solid south. The general feeling here at the moment is that the Democratic managers will permit the Republicans and the La Follette followers to fight it out in a great many of the western commonwealths. Of course the Democrats will not neglect these western states. Mr. Davis undoubtedly will visit them. But the battle will be concentrated in the east and the bulk of the campaigning be done here.

The best chance the Democrats have to carry New York state is to renominate Al Smith for a third term governor. Therefore there is every reason to believe that when Mr. Davis returns from his island retreat in Maine the latter part of the week he will confer with the governor and endeavor to persuade him to announce his candidacy. Governor Smith has pledged himself to do everything possible for the success of a presidential ticket. He could best render this service by lending his enormous vote-getting strength to the ticket itself.

The Republicans are mindful of the Democratic plans here in the empire state and are preparing to meet them. It is the Republican idea to make the most of the breach between Governor Smith and William Randolph Hearst and to encourage the latter to put Mayor Hylan of New York City in the race for the governorship as an independent Democrat of a progressive Democratic, or whatever name may be chosen for his ticket. Mayor Hylan has said he would run if there was a demand for him. Mr. Hearst is expected to do all in his power to foster this demand.

The feud between Mr. Hearst and the governor was never more bitter than at this time—the eve of a presidential campaign. Mr. Hearst's newspapers also have attacked the availability of Mr. Davis as the presidential nominee. Mayor Hylan of course stands with Mr. Hearst in everything political. There is no doubt that if he were to take the field against Governor Smith he would win many thousands of Democratic votes in New York city and without a tremendous vote in the city the Democrats could not hope to carry the state. The Democratic managers are virtually powerless to dissuade Mayor Hylan. His course unquestionably will be dictated by Mr. Hearst and the latter is not in a pacific mood at the moment. Despite the Hylan threat the chances are that Governor Smith will be renominated and will make one of his active, characteristic and personal campaigns.

The Republicans are casting about for a strong candidate for governor. There still is talk of the availability of young Theodore Roosevelt, whose political career was thought to have suffered a setback at the time his chief, Secretary of the Navy, Denby, felt it necessary to resign from the cabinet. There was no attempt after that, however, to associate Mr. Roosevelt with the bases of the civil oil reserves. In the mean time President Coolidge has more than once shown his confidence in the son of the late president and the young colonel was a prominent figure at Cleveland and during the Republican national convention.

There are half a dozen other prominent Republicans in the state who appear to be willing to be struck by the gubernatorial lightning and who are anxious to get their chance in a presidential year. So the effort of Colonel Roosevelt's friends to have him walk further in the footsteps of his father by gaining the executive at Albany is best with many obstacles.

The Republicans express complete confidence that he can hold New York in line for the national ticket even if Al Smith is renominated. They recall that more than 1,000,000 persons who voted for Smith in 1920 also voted for President Harding and, while they do not profess to say the percentage would be so large this year, they believe the voters of the state would demonstrate almost the same sort of independence in choosing between state and national tickets.

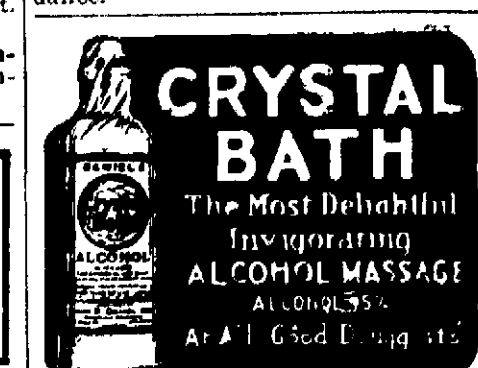

The political history of New York state would not seem to hold out much hope to the Democrats so far as the presidency is concerned. The state has gone Democratic on the national ticket only once since 1892 and that was in 1912 when Woodrow Wilson won. The Roosevelt and Taft vote at that time however, was vastly more than the Wilson count. New York state went for Cleveland in 1892 and the Democrats are saying that John W. Davis is enough of the Cleveland type to warrant the hope of carrying the state for him. In any event they are going to make a valiant effort in that direction and the Republicans are sufficiently alert to the situation to make extensive plans to meet the Democratic assault.

If your hands become badly stained rub them with a slice of lemon-dipped in salt.

NOTHING WRONG HERE
MANCHESTER, England, July 31.—When Officer Callahan saw an automobile zig-zag into Peyton street recently and mount the sidewalk he arrested Ralph Coucher, the driver, for intoxication. "Why, he can't be drunk," said Mrs. Coucher. "We are just coming back from a temperance dance."

EDWARD J. ALLEN JR. (LEFT) AND HIS BROTHER THOMAS ABOVE. THEIR FATHER WHO WAS ELECTRICIATED FOR MURDER AND MRS. ALLEN THE WIDOW.

By ALEXANDER HERMAN

GLOUCESTER, N. J., July 31.—Thomas Allen, two, and his brother Edward, three, still look upon life with a smile. Their mother only 22 years that their aspect soon will change. If heredity means anything these youngsters start life under a tremendous handicap. Their father recently was electrici- cated for murder. Their grandfather met his end the same way. Their uncle is in a reformatory. Their mother faces the job of counteracting these influences in an environment of poverty.

Allen, his father-in-law and another man paid the penalty for the murder of a farmer whom they tried to rob. After nearly a year of litigation the state took its due—with three lives for one.

That's justice which Mrs. Allen can't comprehend. "No thought was given to me," she says. "No thought was given to the two children who will have to become charges of the state if anything happens to me."

If only one of the men were left to make my lot easier," she says. "She was left as only a widow. She could not claim the bodies of her husband and father. They now lie in a Potter's field."

Homeless and penniless Mrs. Allen sought succor of the severer agencies. Aside from advice there was nothing forthcoming. Until Mrs. Minnie White, a neighborly widow took her in tow.

"There's too much slush in this world," says she. "Too much sentiment and not enough action."

"Nothing is as black as it looks," Mrs. Allen has only two kids to worry about. I had five when I first became a widow.

That was back in Columbus O. shortly after the Johnstown flood. Mrs. White's husband, an engineer, was killed in a train wreck.

"And I mothered those five, had eight more by subsequent marriage," she says, "and raised to other children on the side."

Mrs. White became a professional nurse.

"It's the best job a woman is fitted for," she goes on, "and the most comforting."

"So why worry?"

Under such guidance Mrs. Allen has taken a new lease on life. She too, has turned nurse. But not for her own children. She has a job caring for the youngster of a wealthy family in town.

their food until they are 17 or 18 years of age they will certainly be immune from simple Goiter. It is the lack of iodine in food or the water supply that causes thyroid enlargement, or goiter. At the suggestion of health authorities Mulkey's Iodine Salt has been produced and can now be obtained by every family. It is to be used the same as ordinary salt, for cooking and on the table.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT.

You will make no mistake in using a table salt that is officially recommended for goiter prevention.

Dr. Chrisman at Richmond Meet

Dr. W. G. Chrisman, of the city health department, returned from Richmond where he attended a meeting of the health officers, daily inspectors, and sanitarians, in the distribution of daily products. The meeting was held at the Hotel Richmond, which was called by Dr. G. Williams, State health officer, in conjunction with Dan Kinzie, state dairy and food commissioner, and the health officers of the city.

The object of the meeting was to consider the advisability of adopting uniform daily regulations which will be applied to all of the cities in the United States. The subject was presented by Leslie P. Cook, of the United States public health service, Washington, D. C., who has had a great deal of practical experience as a producer and distributor of dairy products as a commercial producer. He has also had a number of years' experience in the field of public health, in connection with his position as health officer of the city of Richmond.

Dr. Chrisman supported the following resolutions: Mr. W. G. Chrisman, of the city health department, returned from Richmond where he attended a meeting of the health officers, daily inspectors, and sanitarians, in the distribution of daily products. The meeting was held at the Hotel Richmond, which was called by Dr. G. human touch. The old Caliph Haroun Al Raschid encountered no more unusual experiences in Baghdad than came to this countess.

The closed door, rampant on a blue apron for a time seemed the most fitting design for her crowned coat of arms.

"No, we don't need a maid," she was told. "No, we don't want any machine operators." No, we can't take you if you haven't had experience. "No, the union won't let us hire you."

Then when she found her leather factory after her continuous rebuffs it looked better to her than the guided domes of a palace. Yes, they would pay her $18 a week and let her sit across a machine from a skilled workman, helping him guide tanned hides past a whirling knife, cutting them into proper shapes for shoes, tops, and so on.

And if her fingers slip and she spoils a piece, the princess feels the caustic wrath of the boss's tongue.

At the end of the day the princess goes to a small room and tucked bed-room on the West Side to a bowl and pitcher washing outfit and a straw mattress.

Soon her royal highness, the Countess Elsa Bernadotte, will return to the Swedish court. There she will be the old life of a European monarchial capital. But the countess will have within her, perhaps, a bit of understanding, not familiar to most of our royalty.

Altavista

ALTAVISTA, Va., July 30.—In the history of the town of Altavista there has never been such a get-together meeting as that which was held in the Commonwealth Hotel last night in the interest of the Lion Club.

The overwhelming success of this meeting may be placed to the credit of Rev. T. C. Page. And at the meeting there was a very good exhibition of the fellowship which existed in the town when it was very small.

This meeting was for the purpose of organizing a Lion Club. The result was the election of the following officers: Rev. T. C. Page, president; J. L. East, first vice president; E. T. Yeaman, second vice president; Earnest Jones third vice president; Will Smith, secretary; Haskins, treasurer; J. C. McCutchen, Hon. J. P. F. Hardison, tall twister; H. G. Holt, L. K. Leflin and G. C. Stone, directors.

JIFFY DRESS

What's the use of pretty clothes if, when they're finished, the wearer is all worn-out and nerve-weary making them? The wise woman has long since coped with the problem by making her clothes after our quickly-made.

Here's one of them you can't afford to miss. It's called our "Jiffy Dress" and it's well-deserving the name, for it cuts all in one, save for the collar. The diagram is a reduced likeness of the pattern. It can be cut out in ten minutes. In twenty minutes, even a slow sewer should be able to run the seams and hem the skirt. That leaves you just a half-hour in which to do the finishing, and your frock is ready to slip into.

Printed silks, plain and printed cottons, gingham and muslin—are excellent materials for this design. In fact, you're not confined to any one or few materials from the pretty silk and cotton dress goods are suitable.

The pattern for No. 2121 cuts in sizes 16 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 yards 36-inch material with 1/4 yard 36-inch contrasting and 4 1/2 yards of binding. Price 15c, in stamps or coin (coin preferred).

TELEPHONE FROM BEATRICE GRIMSHAW TO LESLIE PILESOTT

"Hello, Leslie, this is Bee. Where have you been? I have been trying to get you for a half hour."

"How are you, Bee? I did not hear the phone because I was in the nursery. I did not expect you so soon. I'm so glad to hear your voice."

"I didn't expect to get here so soon, either, but I came through from Cleveland by motor with Dick."

"How lovely! Is Dick over at Sally's lovely now?"

"No, dear, he's at the hotel. He has some movie picture business to attend to here. I have a stupendous piece of news to tell you. If you want us to, Dick and I will be married at your anniversary party. I have promised to marry Dick tomorrow and go back to Hollywood tomorrow. Don't you think it would be nice to have the wedding party enter just as we did three years ago, Leslie. Then when we were again in place in your drawing room Sydney Carton could step back, Dick would step forward, and supported by you and Jack, we could be married."

"Beatrice Grimshaw, you never in your conventional mind planned such a marriage as this. It's a regular movie picture affair. Come up in half an hour and I'll get it all fixed up. Goodbye."

Telephone from Beatrice Grimshaw to Dick Summers:

"Will you please connect me with Mr. Summers' room?"

"Party on the line for you, Mr. Summers."

"Dick, this is Bee. I have just been talking with Leslie and she thinks it would be lovely for us to be married at her home. Isn't that sweet of her?"

"Anything is sweet of anybody. Bee, dear, that will let me take you back to Hollywood with me. I know that if I am married, however, I will have to leave you here. I promised her that I would do this. Do you think we could get Leslie to invite Paula?"

"I don't know, Dick. I know that I wouldn't care to ask Leslie. You know there was no real talk about Jack, her husband, and Miss Perlier before she went into pictures."

"I'll ask Jack, anyway. Maybe he'll persuade his wife to let her come. You know Leslie paid her a great deal of attention when she was here before."

"Now look here, Dick Summers, I don't intend to have my wedding made a publicity affair for some moving picture actress. If you want to see our marriage, we will go home on the same train with Paula Perlier. I don't care to have her at my wedding, particularly as I have been a little jealous of her myself."

"That's the best thing you have ever said to me, and for that we won't say a word about it to her. When are you going to let me come over?"

"I'm going over to Leslie's in about a half an hour. You'll be here after a half hour, after that, Goodbye, dear."

"Goodbye." (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

Dry Fork

(Special to The Bee)
DRY FORK, Va., July 31.—Most of the growing crops of the community are now suffering slight damage from the dry weather. The lands are not dry enough to the crops and heavy damage, yet, but having been wet up to this time they will suffer heavily, rain does not fall very soon.

The Oakland Sunday school had a very fine service last Sunday morning. The men's Bible class had a very small attendance, but both J. C. Taylor and Aurilian Elliott, the regular teachers, were there and they had a very fine lesson. The young men's class had a good number and also a fine lesson. The other classes had good attendance and each class had some visitors from other schools who seemed to have enjoyed very much being with the Dry Fork.

Social Happenings
Miss Salie Adams has returned from Richmond, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Emily Terry, who will spend three days with her.

Mr. Ramsey and his sons, of Danville, were the Sunday guests of his sister, Mrs. I. B. Taylor.

Aurilian Elliott and Misses Lura Oakes, Opal McLeod, Lila Elliott, and Miss Glick, motored to Red House, Sunday afternoon, where Miss Oakes remained at her home, while the rest motored back.

J. W. Shreve and family attended the association at Yanceyville, Sunday.

R. H. Elliott and R. G. Meadows left Dry Fork shortly after midnight, Saturday morning, and motored to Asheville, N. C., where they will spend the remainder of the week.

Miss Jane Carter has returned from Williamsburg, where she has been in school with her remarkable reports.

J. W. Bryant, Foot Goff, J. Dodd Bryant, James Bryant and Jack Bryant went to South Boston on a fishing trip, Tuesday.

Mrs. N. T. Oakes was in Chatham.

LEMONS BLEACH THE SKIN WHITE

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents.

Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion, also as a hair dressing and tan bleach. You must mix it with a remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.—adv.

EXODUS THREATENED IF TAR AND FEATHER VICTIM IS GIVEN HER RELEASE

By EDNA MARSHALL
(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

FREDERICK, Md., July 31.—A general exodus, at least temporary, of the women and young folk of the town of Myersville was threatened today when news leaked out that Mrs. Viola Kennedy probably will not be blocked in her promised attempt to bail Dorothy Grandon, tar and feather victim of last Thursday, out of jail.

The youth of the two have been hidden behind parental fences ever since the orgy of the road leading to Middletown. There have been many ly lectures on clean living from mothers and fathers who are horrified to think their young sons could have watched a woman beaten, stripped and punished with a pall boiling tar thrown over her bare body.

The streets have been almost deserted after 8 o'clock and social life is at a stop, while entire families rather than the library table from which parents fear to let their boys venture.

Myersville cannot be sure what may happen next if the girl is again taken into town. Parents dwell upon the "immoral lesson," learned by the boys who stood and watched that girl undressed in the middle of the road.

Myersville has always prided herself upon the standards of her youth and the Sunday school attendance records as compared with communities lying round about. Every last mother's son and daughter in the town has gone regularly to church.

Then suddenly, the story goes, came two girls and a man from Hagerstown to live with Mrs. Kennedy on her farm outside the town. They were Dorothy Grandon and Miss Mabel Mills, with her "husband," and "ex-matrim."

"They were always hanging around the postoffice and other stores in town," mother of one boy connected with the mobbing of the Grandon girl, told the writer this morning.

"I don't think they had pride ways and they seemed to like to kind of flirt with the boys who happened by. They made them look like they'd welcome advances, my boy told me last night. I suppose that was the boys on to think they could take liberties. Boys are easily influenced. I think it was the girl's attitude that led the boys to administer or watch administered to sensuous punishment, when they heard she'd been out with the husband of one of their friends."

No one knows quite how it happened. Each of the boys who was a member of the mob declares that he "just met a pal who said to come along the road and see some fun to-night." None of them had any idea that a girl was to be white capped, they all agreed. But no one but James Whip made any attempt to help her, when they saw what was happening.

I know that my boy Carroll has learned more than he should know in the last two weeks than in the rest of his life," said that youth's mother, Mrs. Melf Shepley today. "He wasn't in the mob, thank goodness, after Miss Grandon was taken around this township if there was a mob that kind of an influence again. Other mothers say the same. We will all go first."

And Carroll has been undergoing nightly instructions on what it is right and wrong for a boy to do, and on gentleness in man.

That Myersville has not offered sufficient entertainment for its young folk is believed to be at the bottom of the escapade. There is no moving picture show, there are no dance halls or party places in the town. That, and idle curiosity due to a rumor stated after Miss Grandon was taken to the village that she had been asked to leave Hagerstown before she came down here, are reasons offered for the boys' evincing sufficient interest in the newcomers even to tar and feather her.

But the Rev. Clarence A. Neal, pastor of the Lutheran church, will see that is remedied. Before leaving for a brief vacation he called upon a group of parents today attempting to quiet internal dissensions that have arisen in the village, by promising two or three weekly socials, for the coming months.

That either the Klan or a rejected suitor has been behind the mysterious incident has been scouted. Just curiosity has been accredited.

"My Children Just Love Liv-o-lax"

"For some time, I have been giving the children Liv-o-lax for the condition which I used to think called for calomel and castor oil," said a Charlotte mother.

"I think there is nothing more terrible than to have to give children those awful doses, which I wouldn't think of taking myself."

"Dr. Hand told me, in his drug store, how he worked up the formula of Liv-o-lax, just to do away with this unpleasant necessity, how Liv-o-lax, though a pleasant-tasting liquid remedy, acts on the liver in just the way required. Since I gave it one trial, I have been happy to have it in house, because the children just love to take it."

"And Liv-o-lax is an all-round family laxative. It is just as good for the grown-ups as it is for the children. Get Liv-o-lax at your drug store—30c. Just one trial will convince."

JAY-WALKERS

The reckless auto driver gets the blame usually. But there are many reckless pedestrians, too—even more. In New York City, for instance, during 1972, at least 250 pedestrians were killed by while jay-walking from street crossings; only 82 killed at crosswalks.

To common sense convinces that the driver and pedestrian are not equal. Things are improving. There are more accidents than formerly, but fewer for each 1990 ca-

4 HITS IN SUCCESSION AND ZITZKE' BAD THROW GIVES DANVILLE VICTORY

The Tobacconists squeezed out a four-three victory in a sensational ninth inning rally yesterday and thus made it two out of three from the Patriots for the series. Good solid base hits and the anxiety of Zitzke to complete a double play by getting McDonald at first which was responsible for his bad throw and let the winning run across the plate and saved the game, long drawn out already, from going into extra innings.

Cal Euliss, until yesterday the Nemesis of the locals, was on the hill for the visitors, while Lefty Wilson started the hostilities for the locals, being removed in the sixth in favor of Harris after two runs had been made off him. Euliss held them scoreless for the first four innings, allowed a run in the fifth, another in the seventh and went up in the eighth after one was out.

Dave Harris started the scoring in the second by driving out his sixteenth home run of the season over the right centerfield fence with no one on base. In the first, third and fourth innings only three men faced Wilson. In the fifth four came up, one being walked. Until the sixth inning only one hit aside from Harris' homer had been allowed by the southpaw. It being a scratch single in the third by O'Hara which Collie Myers was able to knock down but was unable to handle.

In the sixth O'Hara, first up, was hit by a pitched ball. Fuhrey sacrificed him to second. Zitzke sent him to third with a single into leftfield, a throw being made to get O'Hara at second and Zitzke went on to second. Cox popped up to Myers. Dave Harris was purposely passed, filling the bases. Jimmy Teague shot a long single into right and O'Hara and Zitzke crossed the plate, the play on the latter being very close. At this juncture Wilson went in to pitch to Ray, who was sent up to hit for Carroll. Ray was walked and Brandon ended the frame by popping out to Resco. Harris prevented further scoring although the Patriots threatened in the ninth when Ray opened with a hit, was forced at second by Brandon. Euliss uncorked a double, Brandon going to third, but O'Hara popped up to Staley and Fuhrey went out to Myers to Resco, the shortstop making a beautiful play on the slow roller and sending his man by a quick, accurate peg.

McDonald pulled a sensational play in the eighth when with Mollie Cox on second Jim Teague cracked one up against the right centerfield fence. McDonald jumped high against the wall, speared the ball and pegged to second to catch Cox before he returned to the bag, the ball got through second base, but Dave Cochlin gobbled it up and threw to Myers to complete the double play.

The locals started in the fifth, tying the score when Wilson hit and scored on Myers' double over Dave Harris' head in centerfield. In the seventh Bill Ernst opened the inning with double into rightfield, off Ray's glove. Went to third when Cal Euliss committed a wild heave and counted on Trefrey's poke through the center of the diamond. In the eighth Resco doubled against rightfield fence with one out but died at the keystone sack. In the ninth came the thrill and the victory. Bill Ernst, first up, lined to Jimmy Teague who had replaced Carroll at third. The grandstand gave a groan and reached for its collective coat. "Judge" Harris slammed a single into left field and the grandstand promptly laid its coat back on the seat. Wefers, the Giant scout, went in to pitch for the Patriots. Shoaf was down in leftfield foul territory warming up. Trefrey drilled a single into the same spot that Harris had and Wefers went to second. Myers broke loose with a one cushion shot into the same territory. Wefers going to third, Trefrey stopping at second, with the bases loaded and the fans ravenously beseeching Staley to "hit it," the second baseman completed the sending the fourth straight single into O'Hara's field and Wefers crossed the plate with the tying run. Shoaf stopped warming up. McDonald came up and shot one at Fuhrey who tossed to Zitzke and forced Staley. Zitzke with a double play and the final out in eight threw low to first. Mollie Cox was unable to recover the ball lost before McDonald crossed the cushion and Trefrey scurried across the rubber with the winning run.

She Dreaded the Headache Which Came Daily

"I can't. I simply can't. If it never gets done, I can't darn socks with a headache like this."

There was a bitterness of defeat in Mrs. Bryce's tones. She dropped her mending back into the work-basket and lifted her hand to an aching, burning forehead.

It was boring to look as if she never would catch up with the hole stockings, the buttonless shirts, and the little frocks. These headaches were becoming daily affairs—permanently nagging pains that fretted her temper and her nerves, made her irritable and jump.

Without knowing it, Mrs. Bryce was traveling the way of countless other men and women—suffering the nerve-racking ills of headaches, putting up with their steady undermining of health and disposition.

And why? In seven out of ten headaches, the cause is eye strain. Some authorities say nine out of ten. Often, with vision apparently normal, eyes may still greatly need the help of lenses.

The remedy is clear: an eye examination and properly fitted glasses, if needed.

Have your eyes examined without delay.

In New York

NEW YORK, July 31.—A traffic policeman. He's an artist of pantomime. Every move a picture. And every little movement has a meaning of its own. More gestures than a juggler, a South Sea dancer or a college cheer leader. Swings his whistle like a drum major does a baton. He tosses heavy trucks and costly passenger cars around like a fairy-story giant. One wave and he moves a street full of high-powered mechanical steeds. An upflitted hand and he halts the flow. Hercules was a molly-coddle in comparison. No wonder kids want to be cops when they grow up.

Summer is here, no foolin'.

An aged man seeking refuge from a blistering sun, climbed into an ice wagon. He was found dead there.

Another weary old man seated himself on the first available object. It was on top of an oil stove.

Of all the beggars and panhandlers on the streets of New York, one rarely encounters a Jew. I know of no reason, unless they are more ambitious than other races.

There always is a note of sadness with young women in the morning throng, reading the want ad page in the flow. This morning I saw search of a job. This morning I saw eyes on the want ad page. Then on the numbers above the doors of business establishments. Probably all three of them were going for the same opening—an opening that could satisfy but one.

There is a press clipping service here that receives 30,000 copies of newspapers and magazines from all parts of the world each day.

Important people, anxious to read what others have written about them, have articles pertaining to them and their affairs, clipped and made into expensive scrap books are customers. Many society people are made.

The most endearing terms used over the telephone, an operator in a large hotel tells me, are "Pussy Cat" and "Fox," used by a middle-aged couple. She is Pussy Cat. He is Fox.

At the end of their conversations she purrs and he woof-woofs. Then they hang up.

I don't mind bobbed hair or girls smoking cigarettes, but this new fad of girls coming in hotels, cafes and summer clubs, taking off their hats and then proceeding to comb their shorn locks as well as powdering their nose and douching their cheeks over the festive board is a trifle sickening. It is done in New York's most aristocratic places.

FAVOR EIFFEL TOWER

PARIS, July 31.—Tourists buy more postcard pictures of the Eiffel Tower than of any other view in Paris, dealers say. Twice as many pictures of the Eiffel Tower are sold as of any other view. The next favorites are the Opera, the Trocadero and Notre Dame.

NO SMOKING ALLOWED

The familiar sign shown above was prominently displayed in the waiting room of a railroad station. A professor of English, upon reading the sign, calmly lighted his pipe. When an employe objected, the professor explained that he had a perfect right to smoke in the room and that the sign granted him that privilege.

What was his explanation, and why was he right?

WOMAN FOUND NEAR DEATH IN KITCHEN ALONE

Unconscious, She Is Unable to Aid Officer in Probe of Mystery

(By The Associated Press.)

DENVER, Col., July 31.—Police have been unable to solve the mystery of circumstances surrounding the finding of Mrs. Gertrude O'Reilly Ramsey, Cooper, of Denver and Kansas City, lying near death on an upstair bedroom in the kitchenette of her fashionable apartment here Tuesday morning, gas pouring from a stove nearby. She is in a hospital, unconscious and unable to aid the officers.

Mrs. Cooper's identity was not established until yesterday when her mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Reilly Casey, and her step-father, Patrick Casey, visited her. Mrs. Casey told police she knew of no reason why her daughter should attempt to take her own life and Mr. Casey declared he believed Mrs. Cooper was a victim of foul play. Police were trying to verify a report that J. H. Cooper, of Kansas City, from whom Mrs. Cooper is said to have been divorced four years ago, arrived in Denver Tuesday night that Mr. Cooper had communicated with his former wife by telephone before starting for her home. Mr. Cooper thus far has not been located.

Mrs. Cooper came to Denver from Kansas City recently.

Talking Honey

By G. L. FURGERSON

(No. 12)

The public is frequently confused by the variation in the prices asked for honey by several beekeepers in the same locality. If one beekeeper in your community asks more for his honey than another is charging, it is probably because he is producing a superior article at greater expense, or he is selling at a profit. Be sure you get the best before you mentally size him up as a profiteer.

"Honey is honey?" Yes. And "honey is honey?" but you don't expect all honey to be priced alike, because you recognize that there is a big difference in quality of leather, care in manufacture, and in the wear and appearance of the finished article. Now there's as much difference in materials, cost of production and real value in different honeys as there may be between two pairs of shoes. Some beekeepers are slipshod and slovenly in their work, and others who are skilled and careful may be located where their bees make an inferior grade of honey. In either case they must sell their crop at wholesale or retail for less than the skilled beekeeper who has a location favored as to the kind of bloom that his bees make, frequent, and then produces a crop of the finest grade of honey, un-

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Mr. Ford Owner, 45 Mile Radius, Danville, Va.

Dear Sir:

Do you know that we are offering 25 valuable prizes, aggregating $289.55 in our Big Ford Gasoline Mileage Contest? You have an excellent chance to win one of these prizes and you will learn something about operating your car more economically as regards fuel.

One Ford Owner made the trip from Danville to Chatham and return and used more than two gallons. After spending around $3.00 to have some minor repairs made, he again made the trip requiring one gallon and a few ounces.

Probably you are having the same experience. Cut down the cost of operation. If you will have the carbon cleaned from your car and the valves ground and new oil put in the crank case, you will notice the difference.

For your convenience our shop is kept open from 7 a. m. till 11 p. m. every night but Sunday. Bring your car in and let us put it in first class condition.

Trusting that you will take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to learn something about your car, we are,

MORNING STOCK KLEETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon)

NEW YORK, July 31.—For a week the stock market has been reactionary. A lot of the stocks were sold—most of it profit-taking; but there is evidently plenty of short-sellers. The surprising thing is the very limited reaction and the rapidity of the recovery. This doesn't mean that we won't get more substantial reactions but it will have to come naturally and I don't think can be forced at present by the bearish element.

Just bear in mind that we still have before us railroad consolidations and the big matter in Europe. They have reached a settlement yet over there, and maybe won't for a while, but like the Democratic convention it will come to an end after a while and it will be settled.

In the meantime the supply of steel isn't getting any greater, and if they can pay 27 in times like these what will they be able to pay and what will the stock be worth in the good times that are coming.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

(Thomson & McKinnon)

NEW YORK, July 31.—Cables from Abasco, Texas, had 92 of rains. Thunderstorms are forecast for North Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and States east of the Mississippi.

Cables say Indiana crop delayed by drought. Fair business in Worth street. Telegrams in Journal of Commerce crop columns average favorable. Georgia talks of over a million bales against 412,000 last year. Improvement reported from the Carolinas. Predictions for rain north and east of the big cotton producing sections of Texas may speed to the impression that the drought may soon be relieved and bring about a further downward reaction.
